

Registration Agreement

One Room School House ~ 2022-2023

Parents of new applicants and returning students must read, completely sign, and return this registration agreement to become enrolled for the 2022-2023 school year. Failure on the part of existing families to do so will mean that student records will be returned to Alachua County Schools.

By our signatures, we agree to the following philosophy and conditions at The One Room School House:

- The School was created to guarantee students a safe and productive place to be educated.
- Students, parents, teachers and staff will demonstrate respectful behavior towards each other, visitors, and volunteers at the school.
- Students will work diligently and to the best of their ability during the entire school day. They will complete all assignments and work they miss due to absence, tardiness, or suspension from class.
- Students, at the direction of staff, will contribute to the upkeep, cleanliness and maintenance of the campus.
- Parents are primarily responsible for assuring that students; value learning, respect the rights of others, attend school regularly, and follow all School rules and regulations.
- Parents are responsible for modifying unacceptable student behaviors reported by the School.
- Teachers and administrators are responsible for removing from the classroom those students whose behavior is disrespectful, counterproductive, or disruptive to their own or another student's learning.
